At its resumed session, in May 2006, the General Assembly, noting the following distribution of seats for 2006 among the five regional groups that had resulted from elections and/or selections that had taken place so far: (a) five members from African States; (b) seven members from Asian States; (c) two members from Eastern European States; (d) one member from Latin American and Caribbean States; and (e) nine members from Western European and other States, decided that the seven seats for election by the General Assembly for membership in the Organizational Committee for 2006 would be distributed among the five regional groups as follows: (a) two seats for African States; (b) one seat for Asian States; (c) one seat for Eastern European States; (d) three seats for Latin American and Caribbean States; and, (e) no seats for Western European and other States.

The Assembly also decided that the term of membership should be staggered, and that two members from different regional groups, to be drawn by lots in the first election, should serve for an initial period of one year; that each of the five regional groups should have no less than three seats in the overall composition of the Organizational Committee; that the elections to be held by the Assembly would set no precedent for future elections and that the distribution of seats as set out above would be reviewed annually, on the basis of changes in the membership in other categories established in paragraph 4 (a) to (d) of resolution 60/180 and Security Council resolution 1645 (2005) (resolution 60/261).

118. Administrative and budgetary coordination of the United Nations with the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency

Article 17, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations provides that the General Assembly shall examine the administrative budgets of the specialized agencies referred to in Article 57 with a view to making recommendations to the agencies concerned. General Assembly resolution 14 (I) provides that one of the functions of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions is to examine on behalf of the Assembly the administrative budgets of the specialized agencies and proposals for financial arrangements with such agencies. This provision is repeated in rule 157 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly. At its forty-seventh session, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit the next statistical report by the Administrative Committee on Coordination to the Assembly at its forty-ninth session and thereafter every second year, and to add to the material covered therein information on assessed and voluntary contributions paid by Member States and non-member States in each of the two prior calendar years (decision 47/449).

The General Assembly considered this item biennially from its forty-ninth to fifty-ninth sessions (decisions 49/465, 51/453, 53/459, 55/472, 57/558 and 59/548).

119. Pattern of conferences

A resolution entitled "Pattern of conferences" was adopted by the General Assembly at its twelfth session, in 1957, under the agenda item entitled "Budget estimates for the financial year 1958" (resolution 1202 (XII)). Since 1962 the item has been included in the agenda of the Assembly at its seventeenth, eighteenth, twentieth to twenty-seventh and twenty-ninth to fifty-ninth sessions.

At its twenty-ninth session, in 1974, the General Assembly established the Committee on Conferences, composed of 22 Member States (resolution 3351 (XXIX)).

At its forty-third session, the General Assembly decided to retain the Committee on Conferences as a permanent subsidiary organ composed of 21 members to be appointed by the President of the Assembly, after consultations with the chairmen of the regional groups, for a period of three years (resolution 43/222 B) (see also item 103 (f)).

Since its forty-third session, the General Assembly has considered the item annually (resolutions 44/196, 45/238, 46/190, 47/202, 48/222, 49/221, 50/206, 51/211, 52/214, 53/208, 54/248, 55/222, 56/242, 57/283 B, 58/250 and 59/265).

At its sixtieth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to explore innovative ways to address the issue of how improvements in the utilization of conference-servicing resources might entail a reduction in the availability of conference services for meetings of regional groups (sect. II.A, para. 8); requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to ensure that the conference centre at the Economic Commission for Africa established and developed linkages with other centres (sect. II.A, para. 13); recognized the upgrading of the information technology capacity at the United Nations Office at Nairobi and requested the Secretary-General to keep the General Assembly apprised of progress made in that regard (sect. II.B, para. 3); noted the ongoing efforts towards the establishment of the integrated global management system, and requested the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly at its sixty-first session on the outcome of the work of the task forces (sect. II.B, para. 6); requested the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly at its sixty-first session on impediments, if any, to achieving full compliance with the ten-week and six-week rules for the issuance of pre-session documents, including, where appropriate, proposed measures to address such impediments (sect. III, para. 2); requested the Secretary-General to develop a clear accountability mechanism within the Secretariat for the submission, processing and issuance of documentation in order to provide concrete recommendations to the Assembly at its sixty-first session (sect. III, para. 6); reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to address the question of the appropriate level of self-revision that was consistent with quality in all official languages and to report thereon to the Assembly at its sixty-first session (sect. IV, para. 5); requested the Secretary-General to continue to take appropriate measures to ameliorate the delay in the issuance of verbatim and summary records, with a view to issuing them in a timely manner; and reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to further elaborate on all options, and to report on their practical and financial implications (sect. III, paras. 12 and 13) to the Assembly at its sixty-first session (resolution 60/236 B).

120. Scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations

The regular budget of the United Nations is apportioned among its Member States in accordance with the scale of assessments approved by the General Assembly on the recommendation of the Committee on Contributions (see item 103 (b)). The scale of assessments has also been used to apportion the costs of the capital master plan. The scale, as modified by the provisions of resolutions 55/235 and 55/236 and other resolutions concerning the financing of peacekeeping operations, has also been used to apportion the cost of peacekeeping operations among Member States. The assessment rates used for the regular budget and peacekeeping operations are also used for apportioning the costs of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia.

At its fifty-fourth session, in 1999, the General Assembly decided that requests for exemption under Article 19 of the Charter must be submitted by Member States to the President of the General Assembly at least two weeks before the session of the Committee on Contributions, so as to ensure a complete review of the requests (resolution 54/237 C). The Assembly reaffirmed that decision at its fifty-eighth to sixtieth sessions (resolutions 58/1 A, 59/1 A and 60/237).

At its fifty-fifth session, the General Assembly decided to base the scale of assessments for the period 2001-2003 on specified elements and criteria, and to fix those elements until 2006, subject to the provisions of resolution 55/5 C, in particular paragraph 2, and without prejudice to rule 160 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly (resolution 55/5 B). At the same session, the Assembly established a reduced ceiling of 22 per cent for the assessed contribution of any individual Member State; and decided to review the position at the end of 2003 and, depending on the status of contributions and arrears, to determine all appropriate measures to remedy the situation, including adjustments of the ceiling in keeping with its resolutions 52/215 A to D (resolution 55/5 C).

At its fifty-seventh session, the General Assembly endorsed the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee on Contributions concerning multi-year payment plans, as contained in paragraphs 17 to 23 of its report (A/57/11). Among those recommendations were that the Secretary-General should be requested to provide information on the submission of multi-year payment plans to the General Assembly through the Committee on Contributions and to submit an annual report to the Assembly through the Committee on Contributions on the status of Member States' payment plans as at 31 December each year (resolution 57/4 B). The Assembly reaffirmed that decision at its fifty-eighth to sixtieth sessions (resolutions 58/1 B, 59/1 B and 60/237).

At its fifty-eighth session, the General Assembly adopted a scale of assessments for the period 2004-2006, based on the recommendations of the Committee on Contributions and using the same methodology applied to the preparation of the scale of assessments for the period 2001-2003; requested the Committee on Contributions, in accordance with its mandate and the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, to continue to review the methodology of future scales of assessments based on the principle that the expenses of the Organization should be apportioned broadly according to capacity to pay (resolution 58/1 B).

At its resumed sixtieth session, in May 2006, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly at its sixty-first session a number of reports including details regarding specific proposals contained in the report of the Secretary-General entitled "Investing in the United Nations: for a stronger Organization worldwide" (A/60/692 and Corr.1) (resolution 60/260) (see items 46, 110, 114, 115, 121, 130 and 148).

At its resumed sixtieth session, in May and July 2006, the General Assembly decided to defer to its sixty-first session the consideration of some of the documents issued under this item (decisions 60/551 B and C).

Also at its resumed sixtieth session, in July 2006, the General Assembly, inter alia, requested the Secretary-General to provide to the Assembly, at its resumed sixty-first session, detailed information on the structure and staffing requirements of the envisaged information and communication technology structure (resolution 60/283, sect. II) (see items 46, 110, 114, 115, 121, 130 and 148).

122. Joint Inspection Unit

At its twenty-first session, in 1966, the General Assembly established the Joint Inspection Unit for an initial period of four years (resolution 2150 (XXI)), and subsequently decided to continue the Unit until 31 December 1973 (resolution 2735 A (XXV)) and then for a further period of four years beyond that date (resolution 2924 B (XXVII)). At its thirty-first session, the General Assembly approved the statute of the Joint Inspection Unit as a subsidiary organ of the Assembly and of the legislative bodies of the specialized agencies that accepted the new statute (resolution 31/192). The membership of the Unit was increased from 8 to not more than 11 Inspectors, with effect from 1 January 1978. For the composition of the Unit, see item 103 (h) above.

The General Assembly has considered this matter at various sessions from its twenty-first session to the fifty-ninth session (resolutions 2150 (XXI), 2735 A (XXV), 2924 B (XXVII), 31/92, 32/199, 37/124, 38/229, 39/242, 40/59, 41/213, 42/218, 43/221, 44/184, 45/237, 48/221, 50/233, 51/136, 54/16, 55/230, 56/245, 57/284 A and B, 58/286 and 59/267 and decisions 52/467, 53/481 and 54/454.

At its fifty-fifth session, the General Assembly decided to consider the annual reports of the Unit on an annual basis (resolution 55/230).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly decided that the Unit should include, in its annual reports, information on implementation and the results achieved by organizations in respect of their follow-up to the recommendations of the Unit, as endorsed by their legislative bodies, and the arrangements put in place by participating organizations for reporting thereon (resolution 59/267).

At its resumed sixtieth session, in June 2006, the General Assembly requested the Joint Inspection Unit to continue to enhance dialogue with participating organizations and thereby to strengthen the follow-up of the implementation of its recommendations, in particular on managing for results; and requested the Unit to include in future annual reports more information on the impact of full implementation of recommendations, including any cost savings, productivity and efficiency gains achieved (resolution 60/258).

123. United Nations common system

The General Assembly, by its resolution 3042 (XXVII) of 19 December 1972, decided in principle to establish an international civil service commission for the regulation and coordination of the conditions of service of the United Nations common system. By its resolution 3357 (XXIX) of 18 December 1974, the General Assembly approved the statute of the International Civil Service Commission (ICSC). The United Nations common system comprises 13 organizations that have accepted the Commission's statute and that participate in the United Nations common system of salaries and allowances. Other organizations have not formally accepted the statute but fully participate in the Commission's work and/or apply the common system of salaries, allowances and benefits. Under its statute, the Commission is required to submit an annual report to the Assembly, which is also to be transmitted to the governing organs of the other organizations of the common system, through their executive heads.

At its resumed sixtieth session, in May 2006, the General Assembly decided to defer to its sixty-first session consideration of the documents issued under this item (decision 60/551 B).

124. United Nations pension system

The United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, the Regulations for which were adopted initially by the General Assembly at its third session, in 1948 (resolution 248 (III)), is administered by the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board, currently consisting of 33 members, one third of whom are elected by the Assembly and the corresponding legislative bodies of the other member organizations, one third by the executive heads of those organizations and one third by the participants.

The Fund comprises the United Nations and 20 other member organizations. As at 31 December 2005, the total number of active participants was 93,683 and there were 55,140 periodic benefits in award.

At its forty-sixth session, in 1991, the General Assembly decided to consider this item on a biennial basis, in even years (resolution 46/220).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly approved two changes in the two-track pension adjustment system: (a) a phased approach in the elimination of the 1.5 per cent reduction in the first consumer price index adjustments after retirement; and (b) the addition of a new provision for an adjustable minimum guarantee at 80 per cent of the United States dollar-track amount, and requested the Board to report thereon to the Assembly every two years on the occasion of the actuarial valuations of the Fund; requested the Board to review the benefit of the two-track system vis-à-vis the United States dollar track for both the beneficiaries and the Fund as a whole, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its sixty-first session; urged the Board to explore the possibility of meeting annually for a shorter duration and to report its conclusions, including all financial and administrative implications associated with that possibility, to the Assembly at its sixty-first session; and requested the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly at its sixty-first session on the steps and efforts undertaken to increase, to the maximum extent possible, investments in developing countries (resolution 59/269).

The Board held its fifty-third session in Nairobi from 13 to 21 July 2006. It recommended to the General Assembly that, as from 1 April 2007, the current reduction in the first consumer price index adjustments due under the Pension Funds Pension Adjustment System to benefits in award be lowered from 1.0 per cent to 0.5 per cent and that a 0.5 per cent increase be applied on the occasion of the next adjustment to the benefits being paid to existing retirees and beneficiaries who have already had the 1.0 per cent reduction applied to their benefits; and further recommended implementation, as from 1 April 2007, of its 2002 recommendation to eliminate the limitation on the right to restoration for existing and future participants, based on length of the prior contributory service.

The Board also recommended that the General Assembly concur with: (a) the revised United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund-World Bank Group Transfer Agreement, which would take effect 1 January 2007; and (b) separate new transfer agreements between the Pension Fund and each of the six coordinated organizations, with effect from 1 January 2007.

It further recommended to the General Assembly that the International Organization for Migration (IOM) be admitted to membership in the Pension Fund, effective 1 January 2007, subject to the Fund's Secretary/CEO confirming to the General Assembly that IOM fully satisfied all conditions for Fund membership.

The Board will meet its obligation under article 14 of the Regulations of the Fund to report to the General Assembly on the operations of the Fund at least once every two years.

At its fifty-fifth session in 2000, the General Assembly established a new system of adjustments of rates in the scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations under the regular budget, assigning each Member State to 1 of 10 levels in order to establish their rates of assessment for peacekeeping operations; decided on ad hoc arrangements for the apportionment of the expenses of United Nations peacekeeping operations to several Member States; and requested the Secretary-General to update the composition of the levels on a triennial basis, in conjunction with the regular budget scale of assessment reviews, in accordance with the criteria established in the resolution, and to report thereon to the Assembly (resolution 55/235).

130. Administrative and budgetary aspects of the financing of the United Nations peacekeeping operations

Cross-cutting issues

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to entrust the Office of Internal Oversight Services with carrying out a review of the management structures of the Department of Peacekeeping Operations, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its sixty-first session; also requested the Secretary-General to update the information on criteria used for recruitment to support account posts and to submit a report thereon to the Assembly at its sixty-first session for its consideration in the context of human resources management; and recalled section X, paragraphs 5 and 6, of its resolution 59/266, in which it requested the International Civil Service Commission and the Secretary-General to review conditions of service in the field and to report thereon to the Assembly at its sixty-first session (resolution 59/296).

At its resumed sixtieth session, in June 2006, the General Assembly decided to consider the report of the Secretary-General on the overview of the financing of United Nations peacekeeping operations and other relevant reports on the administrative and budgetary aspects of the financing of United Nations peacekeeping operations at the main part of its sixty-first session; requested the Secretary-General to continue to undertake the review of staffing requirements with a view to ensuring the most cost-effective use of resources; also requested the Secretary-General to ensure that the commissioning of external consultants in the Organization by senior management and programme managers was conducted according to established administrative procedures and financial regulations and rules and to report thereon; further requested the Secretary-General to intensify his ongoing efforts to ensure the expeditious filling of all vacant posts; requested the Secretary-General to entrust the Office of Internal Oversight Services with ensuring that all current and future investigations by the Office were conducted impartially, thoroughly and expeditiously; also requested the Secretary-General to increase efforts to improve procurement opportunities for vendors from developing countries and countries with economies in transition and to report to the Assembly on the implementation thereof; further requested the Secretary-General to continue the practice of using 300-series contracts as the primary instrument for the appointment of new staff; requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly at its resumed sixty-first session a comprehensive report on the proposed establishment of and justification for mission on site, mission in theatre and off site, and off-site and out-of-theatre redundant data centres for disaster recovery and business continuity in peacekeeping missions; and also requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly at its sixty-first session a comprehensive report on the implementation of strategic deployment stocks and the use of logistics base and installations, as well as all mechanisms for rapid deployment (resolution 60/266).

Financing of the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy

At its resumed sixtieth session, in June 2006, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to provide to the Assembly at its sixty-first session detailed information on the efficiency and effectiveness of all Department of Peacekeeping Operations training programmes to be implemented at the United Nations Logistics Base; also requested the Secretary-General to continue to analyse how the Logistics Base could best be utilized to provide efficient and economical communications and information technology services, as well as other services, for United Nations peacekeeping and Headquarters clients; approved the cost estimates for the United Nations Logistics Base amounting to $35,478,700 for the period from 1 July 2006 to 30 June 2007; and decided on the financing of the cost estimates for the same period (resolution 60/267).

Support account for peacekeeping operations

At its forty-fifth session, in 1991, the General Assembly established the support account for peacekeeping operations, effective 1 January 1990 (resolution 45/258). It became operational on 1 May 1990 through the incorporation of resources relating to the overload posts that were funded from the separate budgets of the five peacekeeping operations that were financed at the time outside the scope of the regular budget.

The Secretary-General proposed to the General Assembly at its fiftieth session that the support account funding methodology be changed so that the Assembly would appropriate the Headquarters backstopping requirements for the 12-month period ending 30 June of the following year and Member States would be assessed on the same scale as that used for peacekeeping assessments (A/50/876). In its related report (A/50/897), the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions recommended approval of the Secretary-General's proposal and stated that the requirements would be prorated among the individual peacekeeping operations rather than appropriated and assessed separately. In its resolution 50/221 B of 7 June 1996, the Assembly approved on a provisional basis, for the period from 1 July 1996 to 30 June 1997, the new support account funding arrangements.

At its resumed sixtieth session, in June 2006, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to undertake a comprehensive analysis of the evolution of the support account; also requested the Secretary-General to entrust the Office of Internal Oversight Services with the task of refining the methodology for allocating resident auditors; further requested the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly at its sixty-first session on the efforts made in support of African Union capacity-building; approved the support account requirements in the amount of $183,187,000 for the financial period from 1 July 2006 to 30 June 2007, including 734 continuing posts and 56 new temporary posts and their related post and non-post requirement; and decided on the financing of the requirements for the support account for the same period (resolution 60/268).

Financing of the United Nations Iraq-Kuwait Observation Mission

The Security Council, by its resolution 687 (1991) of 3 April 1991, decided to set up the United Nations Iraq-Kuwait Observation Mission (UNIKOM). In its resolution 689 (1991) of 9 April 1991, the Council noted that the observer unit could be terminated only by a decision of the Council and that the Council should therefore review the question of termination or continuation of UNIKOM, as well as its modalities of operation, every six months.

The Security Council, by its resolution 1490 (2003) of 3 July 2003, decided to continue the mandate of UNIKOM for a final period until 6 October 2003; decided also to end the demilitarized zone extending 10 kilometres into Iraq and 5 kilometres into Kuwait from the Iraq-Kuwait border at the end of the mandate of UNIKOM; and directed the Secretary-General to negotiate the transfer of the Mission's non-removable property and of those assets that could not be disposed otherwise to the States of Kuwait and Iraq, as appropriate.

At its resumed sixtieth session, in June 2006, the General Assembly decided that two thirds of the cash balance available as at 30 June 2005 in the amount of $27,844,700 should be returned to the Government of Kuwait; also decided that Member States that had fulfilled their financial obligations to UNIKOM should be credited their respective share of the remaining balance as at 30 June 2005 in the amount of $13,922,300; further decided that, for Member States that had not fulfilled their financial obligations to the Observation Mission, their respective share of the remaining balance as at 30 June 2005 in the amount of $13,922,300 should be set off against their outstanding obligations; decided that updated information on the financial position of UNIKOM should be included in the report on the updated position of closed peacekeeping missions to be considered by the Assembly at its sixty-first session under the agenda item entitled "Administrative and budgetary aspects of the financing of the United Nations peacekeeping operations"; and also decided that the item entitled "Financing of the activities arising from Security Council resolution 687 (1991): United Nations Iraq-Kuwait Observation Mission" should be deleted from its agenda (resolution 60/274).

Investing in the United Nations: for a stronger Organization worldwide

At its resumed sixtieth session, in May 2006, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly at its sixty-first session a number of reports, including details regarding specific proposals contained in the report of the Secretary-General (A/60/692 and Corr.1) (resolution 60/260) (see items 46, 110, 114, 115, 120, 121 and 148).

At its resumed session, in July 2006, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to provide the Assembly at its resumed sixty-first session detailed information on the structure and staffing requirements of the envisaged information and communication technology structure (resolution 60/283) (see items 46, 110, 114, 115, 120, 121 and 148).

At the same resumed session, the General Assembly decided to defer until its sixty-first session consideration of the item and its related documents (decision 60/551 C).

132. Financing of the United Nations Operation in Côte d'Ivoire

The Security Council, by its resolution 1528 (2004) of 27 February 2004, established the United Nations Operation in Côte d'Ivoire (UNOCI) for an initial period of 12 months as from 4 April 2004. By the same resolution, the Council requested the Secretary-General to transfer authority from the United Nations Mission in Côte d'Ivoire (MINUCI) and the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) forces to UNOCI on that date.

By its resolution 1652 (2006) of 24 January 2006, the Security Council extended the mandate of the Operation and the French forces which support it until 15 December 2006. Following violent attacks during the month of January 2006 targeting UNOCI personnel and property, the Security Council, by its resolution 1657 (2006) of 6 February 2006, authorized the Secretary-General to redeploy a maximum of one infantry company from the United Nations Mission in Liberia (UNMIL) until 31 March 2006, in order to provide extra security coverage for United Nations personnel and property and to perform other tasks mandated by UNOCI. The Security Council, by its resolution 1682 (2006) of 2 June 2006, further increased the strength of UNOCI with up to an additional 1,500 personnel, including a maximum of 1,025 military personnel and 475 civilian police personnel.

At its sixtieth session, the General Assembly decided to appropriate to the Special Account for UNOCI the amount of $51,276,000 for the maintenance of the Operation for the period from 1 July 2005 to 30 June 2006, in addition to the amount of $386,892,500 already appropriated for the same period under the terms of its resolution 59/16 B of 22 June 2005; also decided to apportion among Member States the additional amount of $28,946,129 for the period from 1 July 2005 to 24 January 2006; further decided that there should be added to the apportionment among Member States their respective share in the Tax Equalization Fund of the estimated staff assessment income of $4,064 approved for the Operation for the period from 1 July 2005 to 24 January 2006; decided to apportion among Member States the additional amount of $22,329,871 at a monthly rate of $4,273,000 for the period from 25 January to 30 June 2006, subject to a decision of the Security Council to extend the mandate of the Operation; and also decided that there should be added to the apportionment among Member States their respective share in the Tax Equalization Fund of the amount of $3,136, representing the estimated decrease in staff assessment income approved for the Operation for the period from 25 January to 30 June 2006 (resolution 60/17 A).
